

2019-2020

Leadership

8,988 Experiential Hours
46 Leadership Interns
10 Schools/Colleges

Learning

4,445 Engagement Hours
213 SU Students
11 Courses
27 Community Sites

Supporting students and faculty with academic engagement in the community.

Connection

12,799 Transports
960 SU students
11 Schools/Colleges
79 Campus Partners
147 Community Partners

Literacy

13,124 Tutoring Hours
1,489 Community Students
297 SU Tutors/Volunteers
4 Literacy Initiatives

MISSION

The Shaw Center supports the University's mission to engage students and faculty by providing institutional leadership for experiential learning through community engagement in order to enhance academic learning objectives, research, and the student experience.

SU LITERACY CORPS

10,840 Hours
154 SU Tutors
1166 SCSD Students
27 Community Sites

As part of America Reads, Syracuse University students from all majors are trained and serve as tutors in local school settings while developing critical career skills.

BALANCING THE BOOKS

1,295 Hours
33 SU Volunteers
80 SCSD Students
2 Community Sites

Whitman School of Management students collaborate with local middle and high school students, teaching weekly lessons on financial literacy, reading, writing, mathematics, and other life skills.

ENGINEERING AMBASSADORS

512 Hours
70 SU Volunteers
95 SCSD Students
5 Community Sites

Engineering Ambassadors mobilizes SU students as STEM ambassadors who develop professional skills to design and deliver hands-on science lessons at middle schools while deepening their content and civic knowledge.

NUTRITION INITIATIVES

527 Hours
40 SU Volunteers
148 SCSD Students
3 Community Sites

Nutrition Initiatives, Books and Cooks, Cooking on the Hillside, and Food Busters, focus on educating elementary and high school students about health and good nutrition.

Mary Ann Shaw Center for Public and Community Service

CONTACT INFORMATION

shawcenter.syr.edu
shawcenter@syr.edu
(315) 443-3051

Designed by PR Intern Danielle Llewellyn '21